around the county. The county Soil and Water Conservation District had their annual Environmental Conservation Field Days at Park Station. Several members hosted booths for all the school kids.

Also, CCE's Old MacDonald's Farm was held at the county fairgrounds and hosted many school kids over the course of the week. CCFB was a generous sponsor and its shared cabin with the SWCD and Sportsmen Federation played host to a set of classes.

The county Farm Bureau will also host an informational meeting, in conjunction with Chemung Canal Bank, on gas drilling and leasing on June 10. This topic continues to be a hot button issues across the state.

Schuyler

Schuyler County Farm Bureau has also been busy with the kids. The Reisinger Family hosted a slew of kindergartners at their orchard. The trees were in bloom just in time for a snow storm to greet their visitors. The Bergen Family also hosted the 8th grade class from Watkins Glen at their dairy farm. Several educational stations about different aspects of farming greeted the kids as they learned many facets of agriculture on the Bergen farm.

SCFB's annual summer picnic is in the works for sometime in mid-August. Stay tuned for details and expect to see a fun lineup of politicians speaking as it is an election year for our state and federal representatives.

Tioga

Tioga County Farm Bureau has begun planning its annual summer picnic. The food alone has practically given this event immortal status. It will be held in mid to late July, so keep your eyes out for a mailing very soon with details.

TCFB, as part of the Tioga Ag Resource Group, has set the date for this year's Sundaes on the Farm. It will be held Aug. 8 at MK Dairy south of Owego. Matt and Katherine Kuhlman will once again play host.

The Tioga Ag Resource Group, Farm Bureau and several members once again had booths at the Farm Days at the Mall this year, representing many of the diverse agricultural operations and resources in the county.

Tompkins

Tompkins County Farm Bureau, along with Cornell Cooperative Extension, Soil and Water, and the Grange had another successful Agstravaganza at the Shops at Ithaca mall. Though a little chilly in the morning, patrons were able to view many of the different aspects of agriculture in the county and get outside and see some equipment and farm animals.

The county Farm Bureau and several of our members from Tioga County have been assisting in creating a landowners group to help educate and protect property owners and preserve the environment with the natural gas exploration and drilling coming soon. For more information, contact us and we can guide you in the right direction.

Finally, many familiar faces attended the annual dairy banquet and a whole bunch of awards were given out to area farmers for longevity and distinction. Congratulations to all our members that earned honors.

BOILERS: Use restrictions

boiler that meets new DEC emissions requirements or must be permanently removed within 10 years of installation, but not later than Aug. 31, 2020

The DEC proposal also includes restrictions on using outdoor wood boilers during the summer time months that would impact owners that fall within specific property setbacks.

In the "Northern Heating Zone", which includes Clinton, Essex, Franklin, Fulton, Hamilton, Herkimer, Jefferson, Lewis, Oneida, Oswego, St. Lawrence, Saratoga, Warren and Washington counties, wood boilers could not be used between May 15 and Aug. 31.

Every where else in the state, wood boilers could not be used between April 15 and Sept. 30.

Summer-time use could continue if the wood boiler meets new DEC emissions requirements and is sited 100 feet or more from the nearest property boundary line.

Summer use could also continue if an existing outdoor wood boiler, which does not meet DEC's new emissions requirements, is sited 500 feet or more from the nearest property boundary line and 1000 feet or more from a school.

Lastly, an outdoor wood boiler, which does not meet DEC's new emissions requirements and is located on a farm larger than five acres and sited 500 feet or more from the nearest residence that does not have an outdoor wood boiler or 500 feet or more from a property boundary line that is not on agricultural land and 1000 feet or more from a school.

DEC is holding a series of public information sessions/hearings around the state in June on the proposal. You can go to www.nyfb.org for the hearing schedule, talking points and to send an e-lobby letter opposing the regulations to DEC and your state legislators. Written comments will also be accepted by DEC until July 2, 2010.
