farmland. Harry Schroeder, a long-time farmer and former chairman of the county legislature, CCE Board, Soil & Water Conservation Board and a Farmland Protection Board member was recognized for his long-time service. Mary Kay Vrba, Director of Dutchess County Tourism, who has developed a great program using the Metro to bring people from the city to visit farms in Dutchess County, was also honored with a Tractor Award.

Dutchess County Tourism produced a Farm Fresh Brochure, coloring book and produce map as part of the program, which DPWFB partnered on the map and coloring book and distributed them at the fair. Mary Kay has been a great supporter of agriculture and is now promoting Dutchess County Bount, matching farmers and chefs; she is very deserving of recognition.

DPWFB was well represented at Lobby Days and on the Washington trip and Ag Literacy Day where 40 classrooms heard about the applesauce caper with Mary Stephens, of Dutchess County CCE and FFA spreading the word.

New members were signed up at the Pine Plains FFA Toy Show. More booths and a productive auction were the highlight of the great show.

Save the date: July 23, Policy Development Picnic, Dutchess Putnam Westchester Farm Bureau.

Orange

Ag Literacy Week was very successful as members went into 34 schools with over 40 volunteers. It was another successful year with the help of Lucy Joyce from Orange County CCE. Diana Lupinski will be going into Goshen Intermediate School to discuss farming and soils with the 4th grade. A great tool she uses is the Diversity & Change CD from NYFB. The OCFB is planting a garden with Florida School District K-2 and having an Agstravaganza — a one day program of farming for the elementary school in Montgomery. Farmers from the area will be going to the school to explain what they grow.

John, Diana and Andrew Lupinski attended Lobby Days with visits to area legislators. Joining them were Russ Kowel, Paul Ruskewicz, and Leonard DeBuck. Chris Pawelski attended the Washington trip.

They also had a booth at the county's CCE Dairy Day, which had a wonderful turnout.

Rockland

Rockland County Farm Bureau held its Annual Meeting on March 9. Linda Hill did an outstanding job, with an excellent turnout. Jane Vlastelica had the treasury and minutes in order. John Tauzel gave a presentation on the budget; Charles Larsen, District 10 Director, spoke on NYFB. Jane and Linda both attended the Washington trip and the District 10 meeting and related their feelings to the crowd. Ag Alliance President John McDowell and John Wickes asked Linda Hill to work with them to reinstate the Farmland Protection Board and try to form an Ag District. Work is being done and progress is being made in that direction.

Sullivan

Sullivan County's CCE Ag Day was well attended and SCFB had a booth and signed up new members. The State FFA Convention to be held in May will have a booth also, great support for agriculture and young people in the county. Wes Gillingham attended Lobby Days.

Ulster County

The Ulster County Farm Bureau is alive and well. President Chris Kelder and his son attended Lobby Days and the board is meeting and active.

Susan Clark reported that Lucky C is holding their show circuit again starting April 19. The next shows are June 7, July 5, and Sept. 27. They also had their first National qualifier for the IHSA in Intermediate Fences. Amanda Bender of the SUNY New Paltz Equestrian Team got reserve champion of their region and Susan Clark was named coach of the year. Lindsay Clark, who rides for Centenary College, got Cacchione Rider for the region; she represented the region and Centenary at Nationals, held in Nashville, Tenn., at the end of April.

The Ulster EquiFest 2009 with the 43rd Annual Open Horse Show hosted by Ulster County Horse Council will be held at 8:00am-5pm Sunday, May 17, 2009, at the Ulster County Fair Grounds in New Paltz. Proceeds of horse show will be going to the County 4-H equine program. The event is free to the public and food will be available.

What a busy spring. It has been good for all of us to get back out into our fields and take a break from all the late winter/early spring meetings and events. This is always the busiest time of year for the field staff. Here are some of the highlights from the past few months and some upcoming events.

to help them leverage better lease terms, and to be able to write a lease that better suited their interests and protected their natural resources and overall environment of their properties. For more info, go to www.schuylerloc.org.

The Pro-Ed Committee and Board Member Rick Reisinger hosted dozens of sixth graders at Rick's apple orchard outside of Watkins Glen. What a great experience for the kids as they toured the orchard and facilities and enjoyed some fun activities.

Tompkins

Tompkins County Farm Bureau, Cooperative Extension and 4-H, and Soil and Water had another successful Agstravaganza at Pyramid Mall in Ithaca (see page 13). Lots of displays, farm equipment, animals large and small, and fun and games greeted the shoppers. As always, a great opportunity to educate our neighbors on the value and role of agriculture in our communities. Tompkins County Farm Bureau also played host and co-sponsor of
