CIRCLE OF FRIENDS AWARD

New York Farm Bureau is a grassroots organization that does not endorse candidates. In order to recognize our legislative supporters, we have a Circle of Friends program that is awarded at the end of every legislative session. This award is given to those state legislators who have a superior voting record on issues of importance to New York agriculture.

While the Circle of Friends award is not an official endorsement, it allows Farm Bureau to publicly thank specific legislators for their dedication and hard work on behalf of the agricultural industry. During each session, New York Farm Bureau’s Public Policy Division issues position statements on various bills relating to agricultural issues and our state policy.

The Circle of Friends award is distributed on the basis of a legislator’s voting record and sponsorship of bills that Farm Bureau has either supported or opposed throughout the course of the legislative session. Only bills of statewide importance to farmers will be included within the Circle of Friends program.

New York Farm Bureau announces award recipients at the end of each year and presents the award to legislators at our annual Lobby Day in Albany.
