2018 Monroe County Farm Bureau Proposed By-law Amendments

The Monroe County Farm Bureau by-laws were originally established on May 11, 1955. Periodically we review these by-laws and make adjustments. There is new language that has been adopted by New York Farm Bureau at the state level and it has been suggested that each county Farm Bureau adopt these adjustments as well.

Below you will find proposed by-law additions. We encourage you to read through them and to attend the Monroe County Farm Bureau Annual Meeting on Oct. 26 to discuss and vote on these proposed changes.

Proposed by-law changes adding language as follows:

Section 4. Agricultural Alliance Members. Agriculturally-related associations, both incorporated and unincorporated, and agriculturally-related cooperatives interested in the preservation, advancement and profitability of agriculture may make application to become an agricultural alliance member and, if accepted, shall upon execution of a membership agreement, be entitled to all the rights and privileges of an agricultural alliance membership. Agricultural alliance members shall not have the right to vote or hold office.
