

The Outstanding Pro-Ed Project Award

In order to recognize and implement a vehicle to share outstanding projects and activities throughout New York State, the New York Farm Bureau Promotion and Education Committee sponsors this annual award. The “Outstanding Pro-Ed Project Award” recognizes county Farm Bureaus for a special Promotion and Education project or activity during the current year.

Remember to participate in this recognition program so that your ideas and successes may be shared with your partners in agriculture throughout New York State.

Award: An Excellence lapel pin for each core committee member.
 A certificate presented at NYFB’s State Annual Meeting.
 A monetary award of $200.00 for the county Farm Bureau treasury.

Deadline: entry forms must be postmarked by Oct. 31.

CRITERIA

1. The project/activity must have been approved by the county Farm Bureau Board of Directors.
2. The project/activity may include a specific county committee or multiple committees. It may be a special program of the county Farm Bureau board and/or it may include other groups outside of Farm Bureau such as FFA, CCE, etc.
3. Applications must be approved by the county Farm Bureau president and Promotion and Education committee chair.
4. Project/activity must have taken place between Aug. 20, 2017 and Sept. 30, 2018.
5. If a county Farm Bureau wins this award, they may not apply again for the same project or activity.

The application is now available.
