Ways to Get Involved

Grassroots Policy Development— Our members meet every year at the County and State levels to decide their legislative priorities. All farmers have a voice in selecting the issues we advocate for. Members work with staff throughout the year to make sure your voice is heard in the legislature.

County Farm Bureaus—Members have the opportunity to be active at the local level. County Farm Bureaus participate in county fairs, days on the farm and so much more!

Young Farmers — Members between 18 and 35 years old join together for social events, community activities, competitive events and leadership development opportunities.

NYFB Foundation for Agricultural Education — Members can get involved with the New York Farm Bureau Foundation for Agricultural Education to help inform and educate all New Yorkers about farming and where their food comes from.
